FOREWORD

The basic purpose of the public high school is to provide every student with the maximum of education and training commensurate with his aptitudes and abilities. In the past, emphasis has been placed on preparing students for entering institutions of higher learning. This has not been a realistic approach to the educational needs of students, since approximately only three out of ten will ever enter college.

Our schools must provide a broader program of vocational training, which is geared to realistic employment opportunities. Pupils thus trained will find employment when they leave high school and enter the labor market. Skilled workers are in great demand in this technical age.

A program which will provide students with the necessary skills to meet the demands of our modern age will require that the community, management, labor and employment services take some responsibility and perform some services. Schools alone cannot provide an adequate program for the millions of youth who will have need for employment skills after they leave high school.

R. E. Wald

We proudly dedicate this edition of "The Dragon" to Mr. Phil Sturm, our principal and yearbook sponsor, who has been helpful and friendly throughout our days in Stuart High School.

His guidance and untiring efforts in our behalf have made our school life pleasant and worthwhile.

CLASS WILL OF 1963

We, the Senior Class of 1963 of Stuart High, being of strong body and reasonably sound mind, do here by make and declare this to be the last will and testament of this the Senior Class of 1963.

To the faculty we bequeath our graditude for their patience and guidance of the last four years.

To the cooks we give our thanks for all the meals you served us through the years.

To the bus drivers we leave all the noise, and headaches we have given you.

To the janitor we leave all the mud we have tracked in and all the paper left in our lockers.

To Mrs. Messersmith, we leave all the gossip we didn't have a chance to spread.

To Miss Gunnett, we leave all the gum we had to get rid of during play practice.

To the Junior Class, we leave our ability to have class parties and T. P. Have Fun.

To the Sophomore Class, we leave our ability to get into trouble with the teachers.

To the Freshmen Class, we leave our ability to get things done--eventually.

I, Terry Alderson, will my ability to anyone who needs it.

I, Dick Alston, will my nightly trips to Atlantic to anyone who can afford the gas it takes.

We, Gary Barr and Gary Miller, will to the left-handed members of the Class of '73 our ability to paint threes backward on the underpasses.

I, Leanna Blomquist, will my position as accompaniest for Boys' Glee to any girl who doesn't blush easily and wants an A in music. Of course you have to play the piano.

I, Larry Cahow, will my football ability to Kenneth Gebbie.

I, Marilyn Clifton, will my ability to go steady for three years without breaking up officially once to Barb Hanner. Better watch those fights!

I, Judi Dailey, will my height to Mary (Clarabelle) Rohret, to help her in basketball.

I, Vicki Diddy, will all the T. P. left on our farm, after the class play party, to the next person lucky enough to have a class play party. Cheer up Juniors!

I, Dick Doherty, will my ability to get along with Mr. Sturm to whoever needs it.

I, Larry Griffith, will my ability to talk Mr. Fillman out of his answers to anyone who can't figure them out.

I, Mary Ellen Hanner, will my ability always to do the wrong thing at the wrong time to whoever thinks they can handle it better than I did. Also my ability to drink orange pop anytime, anywhere, to my sis, Barb. Good Luck.

I, Karen Hiscocks, will my High School years to anyone who thinks they can live through them.

I, Francis Johnson, will my ability to be an F. F. A. Extemp Speaker to Kenny Gebbie. Speak up, Kenny.

I, Sandi Kearns, will my recipe to anyone who wants to take the chance. I also will my middle name to anyone who thinks they can stand the teasing.

I, Joan McGinnis, will my skating ability to anyone who wants it and can afford it.

I, Larry Mitchell, will my curly hair to someone who needs it, Jim Douglas.

I, Steve Nopoulos, will my outstanding football ability to my brother Jon, I'm sure he couldn't get along without it. And to Robert Wolfe, I leave my uncontrollable art of basketball.

I, Paul Roche, will my ability not to drive to school all four years to anyone who is stupid enough to follow this rule.

I, Jo Ann Scarlett, will my ability to have an accident on the third day of school to Porky Rhoades.

I, Carol Schmidt, will my dead mouse to any Junior who will need a loud scream for their Senior Class play.

I, Everett Sherman, will my fifty-five Chevy to anyone that thinks their strong enough to turn the wheel--I can't.

I, Harold Stark, will my height and weight to Eddie Lyddon--start growing.

I, Dean Thompson, will my left front window of my car to Paul Jones--in fact you can have the whole car Paul, take care.

I, Paula Walton, will my will to will a will to the next Senior who will will a will. Also my Homecoming Crown to John Bassett, because I've heard people say they would like to crown him.

I, John Wasson, will my contact lens lost in football to Patty Wells.

I, Vince Wells, will my football suit to Bruce Kading and my basketball suit to Jim Rohret--keep'em up fellas.

I, Linda Woodson, will my beautiful blond hair to Donna Knop and my modesty to Karen Draman.

Class Prophecy of 1963

At the Alumni Banquet of 1978, the Senior Class of 1963 regretably could not afford the trip back to good old Stuart High. Thus, many members of the class sent slides to be shown the night of the Alumni Banquet.

The screen is set up and here is the first picture:

Here we see Terry Alderson, still hustling, is now a professional baseball player for the New York Yankees taking Roger Maris' place.

Here we see Gary Barr at his $3,000,000 ranch in Texas. Of course all the cowhands are girls.

Here we see Leanna Blomquist Rockefeller tutoring Caroline Kennedy. She knew she'd get into the White House some way.

Here we see Larry Cahow an executive in the Draman Fashion Incorporated.

Here we see Marilyn Clifton Matthews, the fastest cashier in Jack's Super Value Store.

Here we see Judi Dailey, the President of National Travelers Insurance Company, quite a jump from going spastic over her typewriter in Office Practice.

Here we see Vicki Diddy playing on a hospital squad's basketball team, while still trying to figure out how to get the decorations out of her folk's tree.

Here we see Dick Doherty putting up Christmas tree lights in October (to make sure they are up in time) while drinking a refreshing glass of dry gas.

Here we see Larry Griffith an outstanding leader of the Brownie Scouts.

Here we see Mary Hanner drinking a bottle of orange pop while going down a hill on a toboggan backwards. Bon Voyage!

Here we see Karen Hiscocks Gibson trying to keep her Hoot's straight. (There are 10 of them now).

Here we see Francis Johnson, the famous M. C. of the Miss America Contest.

Here we see Sandi Kearns, a famous Senator, speaking for "Liquor By The Drink In Iowa".

Here we see Joan McGinnis trying to keep her men straight. Good luck, Joan.

Here we see Gary Miller struggling through Dentist's School; there already are 10 toothless professors by his practicing on them.

Here we see Larry Mitchell serving drinks at his own nightclub, called, "The Playboy".

Here we see Steve Nopoulos, a famous cosmetologist, who has invented the "Spastic" hairdo.

Here we see Paul Roche, an intern under Dr. Ben Casey, studying nothing other but cerebral palsy.

Here we see Jo Ann Scarlett manufacturing her own product. None other than Joan of Arc Kidney Beans.

Here we see Carol Schmidt in a very famous dress shop in Paris. She never did get her application into Drake, so she finally married a millionaire.

Here we see Everett Sherman, a guy who tries out duels and straight pipes. His testing ground is the Stuart-Panora road.

Here we see Harold Stark, a famous heavy-weight, wrestling against Lambi for the championship.

Here we see Dean Thompson, a famous minister on television. He is arguing with the famous Sandi Kearns.

Here we see Paula Walton, after she joins the waves, dressed in overalls and standing on a battleship, giving messages to airplanes with her red flags.

Here we see John Wasson recording a party record. He reminds alot of people of Shelly Berman.

Here we see Vince Wells, a famous auctioneer in Texas, auctioning off a certain '55 blue Chevy.

Here we see Linda Woodson still trying to hitch her guy in California. Of course she's already out there.

Here we see Dick Alston, the owner of a gas station in Atlantic, with his favorite grease monkey, Diane

Class History

The Senior Class is ready to start on their voyage to return to the year 1950, our kindergarten year. Our teacher, Mrs. Frances Schley, guided us through our first exciting year of school. Members enrolled were: Richard Alston, Lester Baird, Gary Barr, David Bryant, Larry Cahow, Donald Campbell, Darrell Christensen, Marilyn Clifton, Judy Dailey, Harley Funk, Jr. Helen Hanner, Judy Knight, Patricia McKim, Steven Nopoulos, and Carol Schmidt. During this year David Bryant, Patricia McKim, and Harley Funk, Jr. moved away. We had the break of a lifetime---taking naps every day. What we wouldn't give for one now!

Again our ship sailed away and we found ourselves in the year 1951, our first grade year. Our teacher was Miss Jane Wright. During this year one of our classmates, Donald Campbell, moved away. To our class roll we added Paula Walton, Donna Swanson, Harold Stark, and Carl Waddell.

We nexted docked at the year 1952, our second grade year. Our teacher, Mrs. Iola Akin, guided us through this eventful year in which some of us took part in "Snow Whit and the Seven Dwarfs." To our enrollment was added Rebecca Pittman, Joe Findley, and John Brutto. John Brutto, Gary Barr, and Teddy Christensen moved away.

As we journey on we enter the year 1953 where we were greeted by Miss Patricia Robinson, our third grade teacher. The members increasing our class roll this year were Ronald Joint, Joyce Hogan, Richard Rudolf, Larry Cahow, and JoAnn Scarlett. Our friends Lester Baird, Joyce Hogan, and Rebecca Pittman moved away.

Onward we sail to the year 1954. This year Marjorie Bates Hayes was our teacher. We gained Larry Griffith, Paul Roche, Dean Thompson, and John Wasson.

Mrs. Maxine Rolofson, our fifth grade teacher, met us in the year of 1955. To our class roll we added Leanna Blomquist, Jerry Fredrickson, Kay McNelly, Larry Mitchell, and Larry Thomas. Jerry Fredrickson, and Darrell Christensen moved away. A treat we all encountered this year was taking the clock out to recess, and to blow the whistle to bring in our classmates. We all thought this quite an experience, since by now we could tell time!

Next our ship anchored at the year 1956. Mrs. Leila Wheatley was our sixth grade teacher. Vicki Diddy, Mary Hanner, and Joan McGinnis entered our class this year. Richard Rudolph and Larry Thomas left us. The high-lite of the year for the girls was a slumber party held at Mrs. Wheatley's house. Some of us city girls found farm life and the facilities quite different!

In 1957 our ship docked at the doors of our seventh grade year. Mrs. Ella Feick was our teacher. Roy Wahlert, Margaret Moore, Everett Sherman, and Karen Hiscocks were added to our class roll.

We again sailed off; this time stopping at the year 1958, our eighth grade year. Mrs. Pearle Schultz was our teacher. To our class roll we added Gary Miller, Gary Barr, Lyle Reynolds, Vince Wells, and Russell Stonehocker. During the year Lyle Reynolds moved away. We remembered becoming graceful that year because some of us took ballroom dancing lessons. This was our last year of grade school and we all looked forward to eighth grade graduation when many of us were surprised at receiving honors.

FRESHMEN-----SENIORS

One bright sunny September day in the year 1959 the Class of 1963 entered the doors of Stuart High School. Everyone was a little scared but excited at the adventure ahead. The big event of the year was Freshmen Initiation. Did we ever look silly, all dressed up as different characters and we really enjoyed eating raw eggs, sour milk, and spinach! Those on our class roll were: Dick Alston, Gary Barr, Leanna Blomquist, Pauline Bonin, Larry Cahow, Beverly Clark, Marilyn Clifton, Judi Dailey, Vicki Diddy, Dick Doherty, Joe Findley, Larry Griffith, Mary Hanner, Karen Hiscocks, Frank Johnson, Kenneth Jones, Sandy Kearns, Jim McGinnis, Joan McGinnis, Kay McNelly, Gary Miller, Larry Mitchell, Margaret Moore, Steve Nopoulos, Paul Roche, JoAnn Scarlett, Carol Schmidt, Everett Sherman, Kris Skow, Harold Stark, Russell Stonehocker, Dean Thompson, Paula Walton, John Wasson, Vince Wells, and Linda Woodson. We lost Pauline Bonin, Kenneth Jones, Kay McNelly, Margaret Moore, Kris Skow, Beverly Clark, and Jim McGinnis. The Freshman class officers were: President, Gary Barr; Vice-President, Gary Miller; Secretary, Leanna Blomquist; Treasurer, Marilyn Clifton; and Class Representative, Larry Mitchell.

Having successfully finished the Freshman year, we entered our Sophomore year in 1960. Our class officers this year were: President, Paula Walton; Vice-President, Larry Mitchell; Secretary, Mary Hanner; Treasurer, Karen Hiscocks; and Class Representative, Vince Wells. We had no new classmates and lost none.

Again we sailed on to our Junior year, 1961-62. This year our class officers were: President, John Wasson; Vice-President, Mary Hanner; Secretary, Carol Schmidt; Treasurer, Leanna Blomquist; and Class Representative, Paula Walton. During the year we gained Judy Knight and lost Russell Stonehocker and Judy Knight. This was a very exciting year. The big event was the Junior-Senior Prom. What fun we had planning for it and decorating the Country Club!

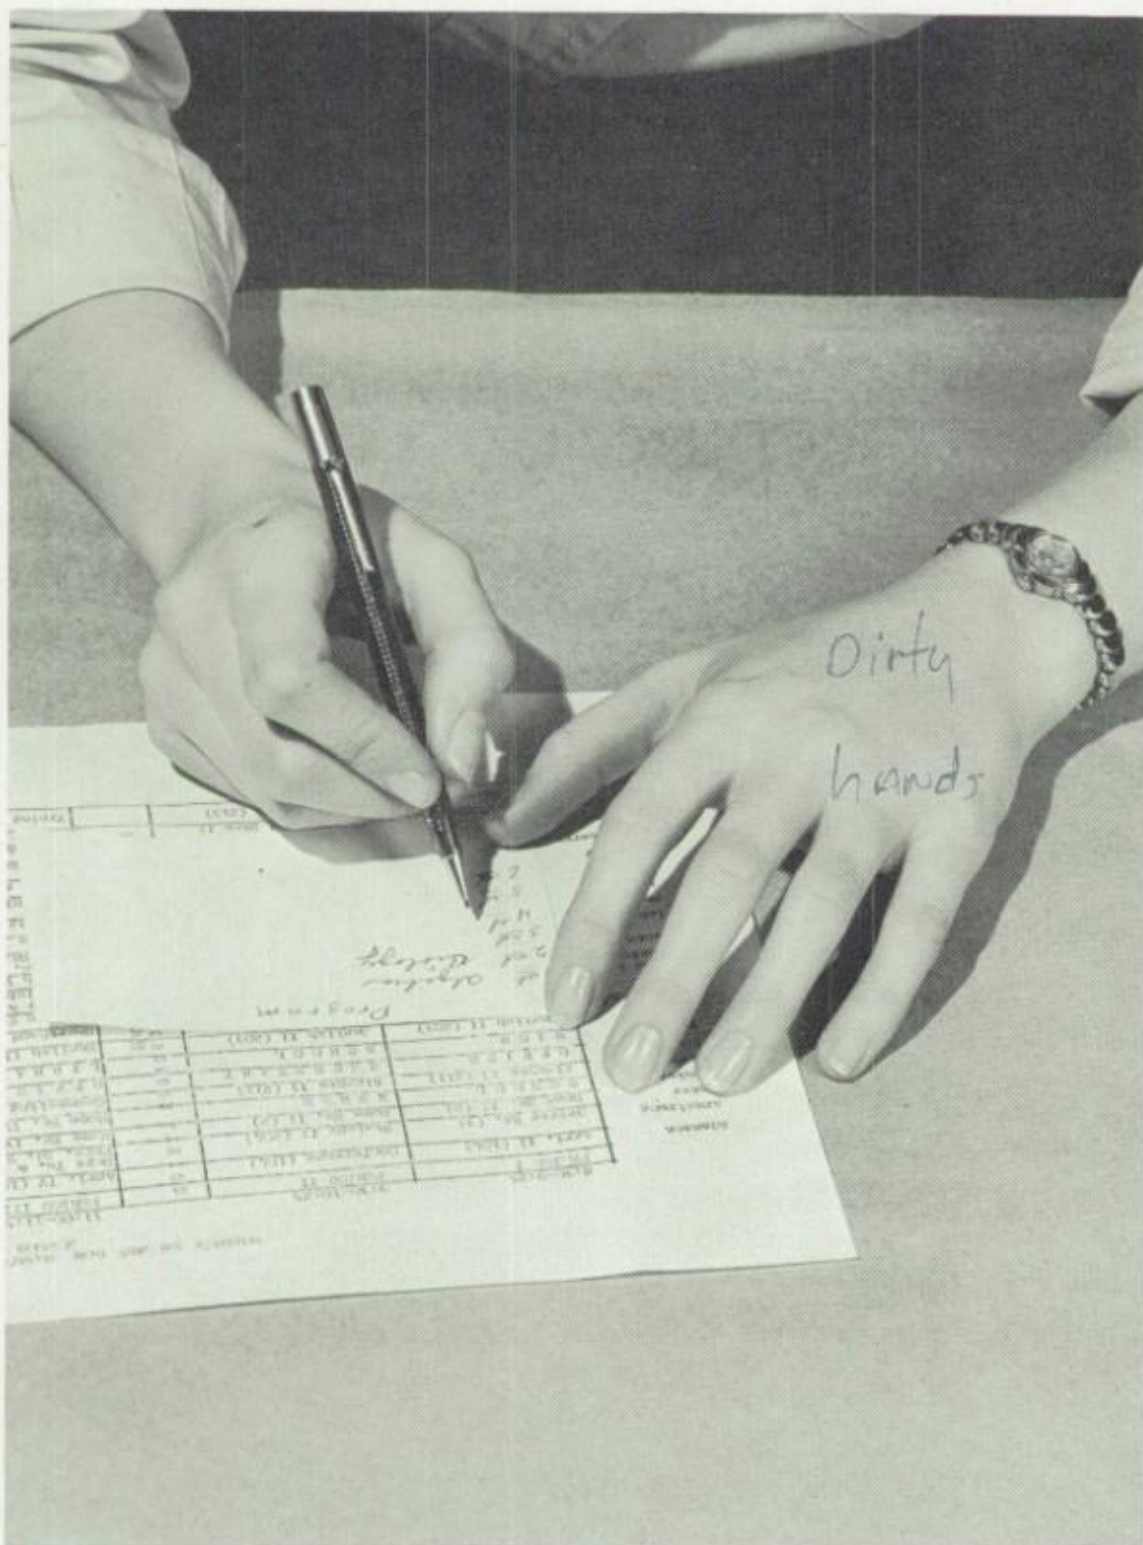

Then, in the fall of 1962, we became mighty Seniors! The responsibilities were greater and the waters rougher as Commencement came into view. This year we gained Terry Alderson and lost Joe Findley. Our class officers this year have been: President, Gary Barr; Vice-President, Steve Nopoulos; Secretary, Vicki Diddy; Treasurer, Judi Dailey; and Class Representative, Terry Alderson. The Senior Class Play, Junior-Senior Prom, and trip to Chicago have high-lighted this year. Thus as our ship docks at another port we are faced with a decision that will determine the course of our life hereafter.

Nonna,

So a real sweet junior who I miss very much!
It sure is different not seeing your happy little smiling face around good old S.H.S. anymore.

Remember all the fun we use to have!
Especially that one summer day when we sat
across from your house in the Church yard!
The night we girls rode around with Richard!

Oh! especially that one night we double dated and went to Des Moines with Richard Clark and Kenny Malone. It was the night all the Explorers took dates to "Love Come Back". And we tried to get Peggy and Joe to turn the radio on and then when they did - it wasn't any good! - That's a night to remember.

Well! I've almost filled this hole page - so might as well finish the rest!

I want to wish you the best of luck in the future in what ever you decide to do and I know you'll be a success!

Come down to Stewart as much as you can this summer and drop in and see me sometime - I sure would appreciate it!

Be good and keep that cute smile and great personality and never change -

We all love you the way you are -

Write sometime - if you don't have anything to do -

Be good & May God Bless You!

Always

Donna,
You are a real swell swell one at that. I've the 've had alot of fights and enotthy talks but that's all in friendship & peace.
I'll never forget all the fun we've had. The parties - staying together, etc.

Just think of all the talks we've had about our boy friends. There for a while I was pretty mixed up when I, I remember when I told you that I am and never go steady again. Well I am and I wouldn't break up for nothing. I just hope nothing interferes with our love be good and don't do anything
I wouldn't. God Bless Ya.
Love
Della

Back row: John Wasson, Joe Findley, Vince Wells, Dick Alston, Gary Barr; Front row: Gary Miller, Everett Sherman, Larry Mitchell, Larry Cahow, and Terry Alderson.

Dear Donna,

{ P.S. I hope you can come down a lot this summer. ~~For~~ fun! fun! fun! }

I guess we're really had a blast in the short time we've known each other. Remember all of those beautiful summer nights we used to go out walking and come back riding. (no, not really) I'm great looking but remember the night I stayed all night with you and we went down town and saw square and peeked up Dan and we didn't exactly make it home too early. Donna I'll never forget that night you gave me a reminder you didn't get grounded. I'll never forget the night of your summer party on New Year's Eve or Christmas Eve I can't remember her noticed one but we sure had fun at the dance too. Another thing I'll never forget is the time we were walking back from the skating rink + Jerry A. + Bill B. + a few other saws some along and --- well heck I can't finish cause I'm running out of ~~time~~ room and time. I'll be back up there at Dutton + that place. Love

stunt high you took part of it with you, probably the part that you could carry off the easiest. Good luck in your new town.

The Not

Long

P.S. I'll send 3 different people to this...

Donna,
We sure
miss you!
Hope you like it all like you. I am sure you'll get a lot of
at the Duck
